

23 Years of Family Strengthening

1994

A collaboration between County of Orange Social Services Agency and the Orangewood Children's Foundation was formed to support the administration of newly issued Family Preservation and Support Funds

1995

1994

Developed a Five Year Plan using need assessments and surveys that were compiled from the community

1995

First four collaboratives were funded and began delivering services to their local communities

1998

The first annual "Building Collaboratives, Mobilizing Communities" conference, sponsored by the FaCT Collaborative Development Committee, was held at Chapman University in Orange, California

2000

FaCT develops Orange County's first Comprehensive Child Abuse Prevention Plan

2000

2001

FaCT and Orangewood Children's Foundation received additional CalWORKS incentive funding to create a new Kinship Program called Family Connections, to increase support to relative caregivers through the development of a Kinship Support Unit

2001

California reforms the child welfare system to create new community partnerships, a new focus on results, and more inclusive practices to improve the lives of children and families

2003

The Children and Families Commission of Orange County solidified their commitment to FRCs by setting aside an annual $2.4 million dollars in their 10 year plan for ProjectConnections.FRC Health Access

2005

2005

Participated in the founding of the California Family Resource Association (CFRA)

2005

Developed customized data and evaluation systems and practices to show true outcomes from core services

2008

Family Resource Centers adopted the Strengthening Families: Five Protective Factors Framework and implemented the Family Development Matrix, a strengths-based assessment tool

2007

Orangewood Children's Foundation, with Commission support, launched the Vietnamese Services Forum, addressing issues of health and wellness for this community

2009

Participated in the founding of the state-wide California Network of Family Strengthening Networks (CNFSN)

2010

2009 & 2010

Deloitte volunteers renovate Oak View and Anaheim Harbor Family Resource Centers during the Organization's national day of service

2010

"Tough Times Should Not Be Tough on Children", a child abuse awareness print campaign, launches reaching 1.7 million Orange County Families

2013

FaCT accepted invitation to participate in state-wide pilot of the "Leaders for Change" initiative that links community leadership fundamentals with knowledge of the Five Protective Factors Framework

2013

University of Southern California TeleHealth pilot program provided free online counseling services on-site at five FaCT Family Resource Centers

2015

2015

FaCT celebrates 20 years of child abuse prevention and family strengthening for Orange County Families

2016

Partnered with CFRA to help FRC network connect immigrant families to legal services and resources

2015

FaCT provides 5-year funding cycle for 15 Family Resource Centers

2015

The FaCT Coalition takes over administration of the network, comprised of Charitable Ventures of Orange County (CVOC), The Olin Group (TOGI), and the Orange County Alliance for Children & Families (The Alliance)

2017

Child Abuse Treatment Program (CHAT) Expands services to Oakview and Anaheim Harbor FRC's